Program

Grace Noël is an Ottawa-born surface pattern designer who currently lives in the textile town of Almonte, Ontario. Her mind is overflowing with ideas! Grace is frequently inspired by nature and vintage items, and loves to create surface patterns for fabric, wallpaper, apparel, and home décor products. You can peruse and purchase some of her designs in her shop on Spoonflower (<https://www.spoonflower.com/profiles/graceful>) and keep in touch with her creative endeavours on her blog (<https://creativelygraceful.blogspot.ca/>). Make Everything Beautiful!

Shop of the Month - Linda loves to work and grow her home run business she has aptly named "the folk village", or "le village artisanal". She has a farmhouse shop that is open by appointment usually May through October. Classes are available at her home or at some local shops. Linda loves working with wool and finding it hard to obtain quality dyed wool in Canada, learned to dye it herself ... and then customers just kind of showed up. The Folk Village specializes in VALDANI threads, Hand Dyed Wool, Kits, Patterns, Diamond Textiles and a modest variety of Cotton Bolts that would work well with Wool Applique.

Long Arm - Johanne first started quilting 14 years ago with a group of ladies from work. Fast forward to 2012, Johanne bought a longarm after much encouragement from friends and family. Although she thought she could never achieve the complexity and perfection of longarm quilting, it has quickly become something she loves doing. Last year she upgraded her long arm to one with a bigger opening and decided to start her quilting business, Jo Stitch Quilting. Johanne loves how quilts come alive with quilting. Quilting for others and herself has made her realize she is more creative than she thought. Johanne loves every aspect of quilting from selecting or creating a pattern to the final stitches of the binding.

They would like to offer sister Guilds a special pre-show price, a weekend pass for the price of a single day admission ($10). For Guild Volunteer Positions: Leslie Whitby

It is that time of year in the guild when we look for new recruits to our Volunteer positions. Most importantly, we need a new President. If you recall, Debby agreed to the overwhelming support she received last year, to stand for one more year. The year is up and we need another volunteer. Feel free to talk to either Debby or I about how this works. You will have a great team of volunteers for all the guild programs and initiatives,

I am in the process of talking to all the current volunteers to see who will continue and who will be replaced. Already, we need volunteers next year for Membership, Charity, and Raffles. If you enjoy working with other quilters, please volunteer. Or grab a friend and volunteer together. In our guild, no one does any one job alone. We are all part of a team that works together very well. You do not have to attend lots of meetings - we only have one meeting a year of all volunteers, and a few smaller meetings to address specific projects - like retreats or the year end socials. I will have the complete list for you in the next newsletter.

The Kanata Quilt Guild has grown a lot over the past few years and your guild needs a few more hands to keep up our programs and initiatives. Join the team, meet other quilters, and have fun while supporting quilters in this area. If you want to volunteer, or have questions, please contact me at lesliewhitby6@gmail.com.

Instructions are on the Kanata Quilt Guild Website under Programs drop down menu. You will need to enter the password to access the content. May Block is Opposites Attract. For Block of the Month draw, please add the 1.5" background strips as shown on the plan to make a 12.5" block and use monthly block colours.

Below are Blocks submitted at the March meeting.

Of course I don't mind folding and organizing all of your fabric. And when I'm done - let's go shopping for more.

Of course I'll help you convert 2 of the 3 bedrooms into sewing & supply storage rooms.

Don't stress about me stepping on that pin. It's my fault for walking barefoot in the dining room.

How 'bout you go and have a sewing day with your friends - and I'll cook dinner and have it ready for you when you come home. And then let's cuddle for dessert.

Don't worry about your sewing machine drowning out the TV - closed captioning is there for a reason right?

CANADIAN QUILTERS' ASSOCIATION
ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE LA COURTEPOINTE

Hello Fellow Quilters;

As many of you have probably heard, Quilt Canada is coming to the EY Centre in Ottawa for June 13 to 15, 2019. Volunteers form the basis of a successful Quilt Canada and we are looking for your support and assistance. We are currently working to have an exciting lineup of classes and lectures booked, led by well known and capable International and national instructors. And preliminary plans in other areas are underway to lay the groundwork for a successful conference.

We are currently recruiting volunteers for the important Team Lead positions. These key volunteers will work closely with the CQA/ACC Conference Coordinator to deliver an amazing event. We are asking for your help in filling the following Team Lead positions:

Photos on the Website Amanda Vajda, webmanager@kanataquiltguild.com

Did you tick "no" to having pictures of yourself and/or your quilts on the Kanata Quilt Guild website when you completed your membership registration? This is certainly your choice, and a few members have done so. However, when our guild photographer, Karine Chapleau, is taking photos of the Show and Tell portion of our meetings, she has no way of knowing what your choice may have been, and nor do I, when it comes time to upload a slideshow of those photos for everyone's enjoyment.

So, may I suggest that those of you who have opted to leave your work out of the guild's slideshows of inspiration, please alert the photographer before you show your work to the assembled members.

Alternatively, if you do change your mind, please let the membership volunteers know and they will update your preference. Much appreciated!
